

DEUTSCHLAND I CREW JOYFUL OVER ARRIVAL

Germany's First Commercial Submarine of That Name Tied Up in New London Harbor This Morning, Having Brought a Cargo Chiefly of Chemicals and Medicines

HAD VERY ROUGH TRIP; MEN IN GOOD HEALTH

Crew Went Aboard the German Steamer Willehad, Which Had Been Waiting for the Submersible for a Long Time, and Will Stay There Till Deutschland Gets Ready to Leave

New London, Conn., Nov. 1.—Germany's first commercial submarine Deutschland arrived here early this morning, completing her second voyage through the warships of Great Britain and France on both sides of the Atlantic. Under command of Captain Paul Koenig, who was in command during the first trip, the Deutschland left Bremen on Oct. 10 and tied up at the berth prepared for her here at 2:35 this morning.

The submarine entered the lower harbor shortly after midnight and was met by a tug bearing Captain F. Hinch of the Eastern Forwarding company and a health officer, Captain Koenig and his crew of 25 men were in excellent health and high spirits over the success of their second venture. The Deutschland carried clearance papers for Baltimore or any Atlantic port.

The Deutschland had no sooner moored than she was screened from sight by a pontoon carrying a high fence. Her crew went aboard the North German Lloyd liner Willehad, which had been awaiting the arrival of the submersible for some time, and will be quartered there during their stay.

Captain Koenig said that except for unusually rough weather the trip across the ocean was uneventful. The Deutschland's cargo is said to consist mainly of chemicals and medicines.

Captain Koenig said he had expected to leave Bremen on October 1 but the boat was damaged in a collision and was forced to put back for repairs, which delayed him several days. All but two of the crew were with the Deutschland on its first trip.

The return cargo, consisting mainly of crude rubber and surgical supplies, valued at $500,000, has been ready for several weeks.

The Deutschland, it was later announced, has 750 tons of dyestuffs, medicines and chemicals.

U. S. NAVY EXPERT TO EXAMINE DEUTSCHLAND

To Make Certain That No War Equipment Was Placed Aboard Since Her Previous Visit.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—The board of navy experts will probably be directed to inspect the Deutschland and make certain that no war equipment was placed aboard during her stay in Germany, thus altering her status as a merchant carrier, established to the satisfaction of the state department when she was visiting Baltimore.

TWO MEN ARRESTED

On Charge of Wilfully Slaughtering Steer in Stowe.

Stowe, Nov. 1.—Howard Chase and Archie Hill, who were taken to the county jail at Hyde Park yesterday after several days' detention in the "cooler" here, were given a hearing before Justice C. M. Watts Monday afternoon upon a charge of wilful and malicious killing of animals. Chase, who is 26 years of age, and has a family, came recently from Hyde Park to Stowe Forks to carry on a lumber job for the C. E. and F. O. Burt company. Hill, who is 19, accompanied Chase and was employed by him. It is claimed that Chase and Hill killed a steer belonging to the Burt, taking it from their pasture, salted it, the meat and bringing the hide to market. At the hearing both men waived examinations and each was bound over to county court under $500 bonds. Being unable to secure the bonds they were taken to jail.

Darling was authorized to appoint a committee of three to entertain plans for the school's half-century observance in 1919. Judge Darling did not make his appointment immediately, as he prefers to defer his selection for a time. Latitude for having ample time in which to appoint was allowed by the trustees. The trustees convened at 2 o'clock, after dinner had been served in alumni hall. Beyond the steps taken to realize on Pres. Hollister's suggestion regarding the 1919 anniversary, no action was taken at the afternoon session, although a number of recommendations made by the principal and others were considered and discussed.

MINOR MATTERS BEFORE COUNCIL

George W. Mann Wants Permit to Build House Said to Be Already Started—Improvements on Prospect Street.

Affairs of minor account occupied the attention of the city council at its regular session last evening, the city fathers adjourning early to participate in the board of civil authority meeting in the court room. George W. Mann presented his compliments to the council and asked that a permit granting him the privilege of erecting three houses on Mann street be amended to include a fourth house, which is now in course of construction. His request was referred to the building inspector and a second request, to change the grade on a piece of thoroughfare connecting Willey and Mann streets was turned over to the city engineer. Thomas Blann, sr., was given permission to move a house and Karl Sawyer was awarded damages of 75 cents for a hen killed by dogs, the killing having been reported to Alderman Shurtliff.

There was talk of the charity committee's investigation of a landlord's alleged abuse of a Foss street tenant and Alderman Rossi, as the spokesman for the tenant, thought action should be taken if the facts warranted. Alderman Shurtliff declined to believe that the grand jury should be allowed to consider the merits of the complaint and to the end that official action may be taken if circumstances call for action, the aggrieved parties and other principals will be asked to attend an informal hearing before the grand jury or charity committee Thursday evening.

A report from the street committee recommended that Louis Romanis petition for a cement sidewalk be granted. It developed that the sidewalk, extending westerly from the Prospect street bridge, is nearing completion and there was complaint because the request of Mr. Romanis seemed to take precedent over petitions that were presented earlier in the year. On inquiry, it was said that Mr. Romanis assumed a large proportion of the expense incurred in laying cement to his doorway. The water committee requested for a water main extension, the report stating that the work will cost $35 with a yearly revenue of $6. Mr. Chatot will dig the ditch and do the backfilling. The charity committee recommended that Dr. P. S. Duffy, recently resigned as city physician, be paid pro rata to Sept. 19. All three reports were accepted.

Writing permits were granted the following applicants on the favorable report of the inspector: Mrs. E. L. Denmore, lights, 61 Beakley street; D. J. More, lights, Tremont street; George Stann, lights, 16 Green street; George W. Mann, lights, Willey street; C. C. McCarthy, lights, 105 South Main street; Marion & O'Leary, stonemason motor; M. Villa, lights, 30 Granite street; M. & B. L. & P. Co., 35 meters; Mr. Rowell, lights, 35 Merchant street. Building permits were granted George Siora for a two-story piazza on Green street; W. A. Bradford for a barn annex on Aver street; M. Villa for a wagon shed and piazza at 36 Granite street and H. D. Stevens for a horse shed on Smith street. Investigations having been made by the inspector.

Schools received their share of consideration in the weekly assignments approved in a small gist of warrants presented by the clerk. The balance of the school tax, $16,138.33, went to the school board along with the balance of the evening drawing school tax, $1,773.32. Other warrants approved for payment were: Street department payroll, $634.88, street, state highway, sewer, surface sewer, bridge and culvert, sidewalk and health accounts; water department payroll, $71.76; fire department payroll, $95.71; police department payroll, $80.89.

ROGERS—BEACH.

Wedding Yesterday Afternoon at Home of the Bride.

At 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon a very pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Beach, 107 Prospect street, when their daughter, Delores F., was married to Everett C. Rogers. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Bert J. Lehigh, pastor of the First Baptist church, and the single ring service was used. The house was tastefully decorated with green and arch. Only a few of the immediate friends and relatives were present.

Two of the bride's nieces, Miss Ada Patch and Miss Evelyn Howell, acted as flower girls, while Master Theodore Howell, the four-year-old nephew of the bride, very manfully carried the ring.

After light refreshments were served the happy young couple left on the 3:25 train for points north. Upon their return, they will take up their residence in Barre.

The contracting parties are well and favorably known in the city and have a wide circle of friends who join in wishing them much happiness.

FEAR STEAMER DESTROYED

Lifeboat Marked "A. D. Davidson" Washed Ashore off Cornwall

SHIP CARRIED AN AMERICAN CREW

The Davidson Was American Lake Steamer Bought by the French

London, Nov. 1.—A Lloyds dispatch from Newquay, Cornwall, says that a ship's lifeboat, marked "A. D. Davidson," has been washed ashore at Perranporth. The Davidson sailed from Montreal October 4 for Havre.

Montreal, Nov. 1.—Harbor officials say that the A. D. Davidson carried an American crew. The vessel was one of a number of American lake grain carriers purchased by the French government.

ROWANMORE TRIED TO MAKE ESCAPE FROM SUBMARINE

But Affidavits of Members of Crew Show That Submarine Continued to Shell the Steamer After Latter Halted.

London, Tuesday, delayed, Nov. 1.—The British steamer Rowanmore, bound from Baltimore for Liverpool, was sunk last week by a submarine. She attempted an escape from the undersea boat, but the latter continued to shell the ship after she stopped, according to affidavits from members of the crew procured by the American consul at Liverpool. Two white Americans were on board, George Murphy of Brooklyn and Albert Sessler of Boston.

The affidavits of these men agree that they saw no shells fired at the lifeboats after they were clear of the ship.

Marina Survivors Tell Tale.

Dublin, via London, Nov. 1.—The British steamship Marina was torpedoed without warning, according to a statement made by American survivors of the vessel who arrived here last night from Bearhaven. The survivors declared that two torpedoes were fired at the Marina, and that the submarines watched the boats containing the survivors for half an hour without offering assistance in a statement to the Associated Press.

Twenty-eight American survivors of the steamer arrived at the Seaman's house here last night from Bearhaven. In the statement to the Associated Press they said:

"We reached safety after more than 30 hours in a rough sea in an open boat. Captain Brown was last seen lowering himself to a raft.

"The Marina, with a cargo of whiskey from Glasgow to Baltimore, was struck by a torpedo without offering assistance on starboard side off Skellig Rocks at 4:14 o'clock Saturday morning and sank in a few minutes. A second torpedo struck the port side of the vessel about ten minutes after the first.

"All Americans aboard were members of the crew except one, a passenger named Middleton of Fredericksburg, who was drowned, and two stewards who also were drowned.

"The submarine watched our boats for half an hour and offered no assistance."

GERMANY IS QUERIED.

For Information About Sinking of Marina and Rowanmore.

Washington, D. C., Nov. 1.—Germany has been asked to furnish the United States any information the imperial government may have concerning the sinking by submarines of the British steamers Marina and Rowanmore. The request was forwarded through the American embassy at Berlin.

It is understood the state department took this step without waiting for full reports from British sources and survivors of the ships because it would be considered desirable to assemble at the earliest possible moment complete information, particularly regarding the Marina, on which several American horse tenders apparently lost their lives. The request is informal, and is intended in no sense as an intimation that German submarines have violated international law or the pledges of the German government to the United States.

While the Marina is the first vessel on which American lives have been lost in the war zone since the Sussex, and all reports so far said she was attacked without warning, there was no evident tension over the case today in government circles. Officials continued to be optimistic, apparently in the belief that final accounts would show that the steamer lost her immunity as a merchantman by flight or by attempting a counter attack.

As in the Rowanmore, which admittedly sought desperately to escape, these seemed to be but one point to clear up—whether the submarine actually fired upon boats leaving the ship, as alleged by survivors.

ESCAPED LUNATIC CAUGHT.

Archie Whittemore Had Built Hut and Grubbed for His Living.

Hyde Park, Nov. 1.—Archie Whittemore, the escaped insane man, who disappeared from his father's house at Eden Mills 19 days ago, was found yesterday by George O'Brien in a pasture about four miles from his home. He was asleep in a hut that he had built and when awakened went home readily. He had lived on apples, beech nuts and occasionally secured milk and cream from a nearby farmer, unbeknown to the owner.

INTERESTING FEATURES

At Methodist Ladies' Sale—Supper Served Last Night—Program To-night.

The ladies and pastor's union of the Heddington Methodist church held their annual chicken-pie supper and sale in the church parlors last evening when about 300 people were seated around the tables from the beginning of the supper hour to the close, it proving to be one of the most successful ever held at the church. The young ladies of the church acted as waitresses. A substantial menu of chicken-pie, mashed potatoes, vegetables and dessert were in order, everyone at the table seeming to enjoy the repast. The dining room was trimmed with a color scheme of red and white.

While the supper was in progress, the ladies at several booths in the upstairs parlors were doing a rushing business in disposing of their wares, the booths encircling the parlor and running into two of the ante-rooms in the west side of the church. The room with the booths was very prettily decorated, showing a great deal of work by the women of the church in making preparations for the affair. There is a color scheme of green, white, orange and blue, the center of the room having streamers of crepe paper reaching from the top of the room to all corners, and the corner booths each being trimmed with colors that harmonize very nicely with the streamers that run to each corner.

To-night instead of the chicken-pie supper, there will be a concert program with several people taking part in the evening's entertainment along with the sale that was in order last night. There will be readings, music and solos for amusement and a complete change from last night. There are booths of nearly every description, doll booths, crochet booths, Christmas card, fancy work, candy wares, flowers, infant booth, food and vegetable counters and booths devoted to weavers' articles, aprons and ice cream. The corner booths were attended by Miss Corliss Dowden and Eileen Parks, who were selling dolls and dolls' dress; the rose bloom, a flower booth attended by Mrs. C. L. Bigger and Mrs. Fred Beckley, and the apron and snow bound, a very prettily decorated booth, where ice cream was served was attended by Mrs. Emory Newhall, Mrs. Ernest Houston and Miss Grace Newhall. Other booths were attended by Mrs. L. D. Martin, who had a nice assortment of crochet articles; fancy work booth in charge of Mrs. Raymond Waterman; infant wear attended by Mrs. Fred Cutts; the Christmas card table by Miss Alice Farnham; the food and vegetable counter by Mrs. Eugene Glynn and Mrs. Fred Beckley, and the apron and weaver stands managed by Mrs. Earl Batcher and Mrs. Thomas Cave.

Perhaps one of the most interesting features of the fair's entertainment is the old fashioned bed room in charge of Mrs. L. B. Dodge in one of the alcoves of the church parlor. For anyone who is at all interested in old furniture and antiques in general, this room is surely well worth inspecting. The room is planned in a way to appear like a colonial bed room with a bed that has been handed down through at least five generations, with a spread and quilts that were made over 100 years ago. At the head of the bed, there are two old type pictures with spruce acorns glued in a frame for the pictures. A flax-wheel and flax is another item of interest, the wheel being one used by Mrs. Dodge's grandmother over 125 years ago, while a doll and dolls' chair dates back to about 1800 and might be of interest to many of the older people who may remember the occasion. The event was to have the members of the church assemble for a social time, and to hold the community donation to Rev. L. J. Roberts and wife. Mr. Roberts being the pastor of the church. The paper shows about 75 people on the committees, there being one for the social and one for the donation.

W. H. Stubbs, a traveling representative for the Mergenthaler Linotype Co. was a business visitor in Barre today. A dozen years ago Mr. Stubbs won a national competition for speed in setting type on the Linotype machine, setting over 12,000 ems an hour for a run of five hours.

75 NEW NAMES ON CHECK LIST

As Result of Two Meetings of the Barre Board of Civil Authority

24 NAMES TAKEN FROM THE LIST

In Last Night's Meeting, the Town Ward Had the Largest Gain

A total of 75 additions to the checklist, including a number of young men who have attained their majority since the last election as well as many newly naturalized citizens have resulted from two meetings of the board of civil authority, the last of the sessions having been held in the court room at city hall last evening. Altogether 201 changes have been made and 24 names have been stricken from the list because of deaths and removals. Therefore, there will be a perceptible increase in the voting totals on the checklist to be used at the national and state elections next Tuesday, although the footings have not been completed. Tabulations are being made at the office of the city clerk and the copy will be in the hands of the printer in time for election.

Alderman A. M. Rossi presided at the meeting and 12 members of the board were present. An even hundred changes and additions were made, as against 101 in the aggregate last week. Of the 100 insertions made on the list last evening, 50 are new names. One week before 25 new names were added to the list. Follows the tabulations for last evening: Ward 1, 19; ward 2, 16; ward 3, 24; ward 4, 12; ward 5, 11; ward 6, 8. Voters eligible to exercise the franchise Tuesday will be considerably more numerous than the total in 1912, the deduction of those who are preparing the checklist. In March the aggregate showed something of an increase over the preceding election and the total this fall will be greater than ever, it is expected.

The usual polling places have been designated in each ward and the ward officers elected last February will serve next Tuesday. Substitutes who did duty in the September primaries will not serve if the appointees originally made are able to serve.

HALLOWEEN CELEBRATED.

Various Observances, Some of Them Formal, But Mostly of Opposite Sort.

Halloween pranks last evening were more conspicuous for their moderation than for any of the expected excess of youthful exuberance and in very few instances did the celebrators go beyond the bounds of reason. There were numerous Halloween festivals and parties, and ghosts, elves and all sorts of spooky figures had their inning. Children paraded many of the streets and got in some of their best tricks in people's back yards and gardens where condescending grown-ups mayhap purposely left calabags, turnips and other Halloween purtenances loose for the provokers. About the worst happening that may be charged to the celebrators occurred on North Main street near the Palace garage, where a loose detached cabbage was shed at the illuminated globe surmounting a gasoline pump. If the aim was to shatter the lights and get the person who propelled the cabbage did not miss the mark. Over on Brooklyn street someone tossed a hard vegetable through a parlor window in the home of Mrs. Dixon and the police were asked to investigate. The little job of destruction bore the hall marks of boys' work. All in all, however, there was a preponderance of wholesome fun and the real mischievous mischief makers were much in the minority.

At the Presbyterian manse on Wellington street Rev. and Mrs. Edgar Crossland entertained the members and former members of the Bible class. Twenty-five young people joined in the merry-making and an interesting program of Halloween games was followed by an informal stereopticon entertainment, with the pastor projecting postcard views of the Passion Play on a screen that reflected faithfully some of the scenes which the holy limbs saw at Oberamunau in 1910. Victrola music formed an additional feature of the evening's entertainment and at the close refreshments of hot chocolate, wafers, sandwiches and apples and grapes were served.

Misses Mary Carleton and Elsa Ramage entertained the "unhallowed spooks, ghosts," etc., of the Congregational Philathea class at the home of the former on Highland avenue and the evening of fun was enjoyed. Practically the whole party were masked and some of the costumes were works of art. The usual Halloween games were played and refreshments were served. About 25 were present and if hilarity is a sign of a good time, then there is no question of the success of the evening.

Sunday school classes of the First Presbyterian church gathered in the basement of the church for a masquerade party. Old customary effects were used and amid a small riot of color the children joined in a program of Halloween games. Bobbing for apples was one of the pastimes enjoyed and before the classes disbanded, a substantial lunch was served.

Dancers at a masquerade given in the grange hall on Trow hill under the auspices of Cobble Hill grange made the most of the opportunities afforded them for celebrating Halloween. It was one of the largest crowds ever brought together in the hall, but there was ample room for dancing, even after the bars were lowered for those who did not mask. Goddes' orchestra played for the dance program and refreshments were served at intermission. A large number of people from this city made the ascent of Cobble hill in order to take part in the merry-making.
